

I signed up to be on the telephone no call list for the obvious reasons, and I do not really want to see the effectiveness of the list undermined by adding loopholes. That would be bad in two ways: the no call list would not serve its intended purpose, and it would still cost taxpayers money to manage/enforce it. Thank you for your time and efforts. SRS